

WESTCHESTER PUBLIC LIBRARY

COPYING OF LIBRARY MATERIALS

Patrons are cautioned against the copying of any library materials protected by current statute and the unlawful use of copyrighted materials.

The library directs that all employees adhere to the provisions of Title 17 of the United States Code and other relative legislation and guidelines related to the use and duplication of copyrighted material.

Unlawful copies of copyrighted material may not be produced on library equipment or with library supplies.

Unlawful copies of copyrighted materials may not be used with library equipment, within library facilities or at library sponsored functions.

The legal and/or insurance protection of the library will not be extended to employees who unlawfully copy and use copyright materials.
